Partnership Opportunities Catalog

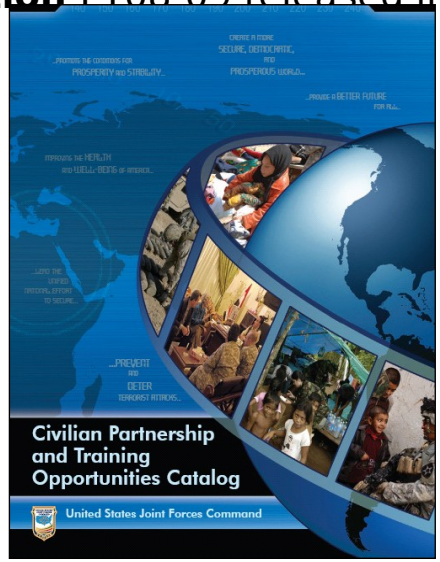
Intent: Provide the U.S. interagency community with information that will aid them in making informed decisions on participation in joint training events.

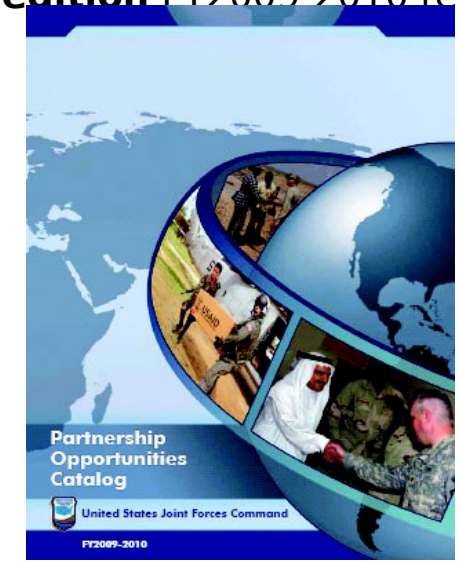
History

2 editions released so far

1st edition FY08-09 released in Winter 2007



2nd edition FY2009-2010 released in Winter 2008



3rd edition (FY2011-2012) target for release by June FY2010

Primary Themes of the Partnership Opportunities Catalog

- Early Involvement

  Providing the right information in the right amount of time.

- Funding / Resources

  Ensuring that enough time is given to our interagency partners allow for proper planning for distribution of funding and resources.

- Prioritized Events

  Detailed information provided in the keywords and text of each event allowing for our partners to prioritize for themselves what will be most beneficial for them.

- Personal Relationships

  Providing the right people to contact – not just a generic phone number or email address – to ensure the interagency community can coordinate with the military with less effort.

chi Freedom Guardian is a US-Republic of Korea (ROK), PLAN-oriented warfighting Command Post Exercise (CPX) nducted annually in the Republic of Korea. Freedom uardian (FG) focuses on USPACOM and Combined Forces ommand (CFC) OPLANs that support the defense of the Republic of Korea. Ulchi is a ROK national mobilization exercise held concurrently with FG but separate and distinct from the CPX. These exercises demonstrate U.S. resolve to support the ROK against external aggression while improving ROK/U.S. combat readiness and joint/combined interoperability.

The CPX focus is on strategic, operational, and tactical aspects of military operations in the Korean theater of operations (KTO). Commander, US Forces Korea (USFK) uses this exercise to conduct training initiatives to transform the command and demonstrate enhanced warfighting capabilities. UFG includes a Senior Leader Seminar (SLS) for ROK/US leaders focused on OPLAN issues. This is followed by the CPX in which CFC staff and components participate in the combined exercise with the
